

IOWA HISTORY Journal

Iowa History Journal is full of stories about the men and women who made Iowa great, and the events that shaped the state and set it on its path to greatness – stories from sports, entertainment, politics, business and much more!

Knowing the past is a key to understanding the present and the future! Iowa History Journal is a wonderful educational tool, told in an entertaining style. The goal is to make history fun and exciting!

Iowa History Journal is published six times a year – in January, March, May, July, September and November.

An exciting new publication about Iowa, for Iowans!

Reliving Iowa's grand past ~ investing in its great future!

"To understand our state and its people, we must understand the history of the state. This magazine will help to fill a huge void in the education of all Iowans." – Steve Noah, vice president, William Penn University, Oskaloosa.

"If you enjoy Iowa history as much as I do, then this is the publication for you." – Rick Fangman, senior graphic designer, Cedar Rapids.

"This journal is just a fantastic idea for Iowa and all Iowans who want to know their unique history." – Dale Anderson, attorney, Crystal Lake, Illinois.

"No one can match Mike Chapman's ability to bring the legends of Iowans of the past to a vibrant new life today." – Jack Bender, artist, Tulsa, Oklahoma
